
We are going to talk about how your child is doing with all that you've had to experience. Some of these questions are about the safety of your child while others are about he/she is doing.

- I am here to offer you support while we talk.
- Remember, you can take breaks if you wish too.

Is your child(ren) named on a Civil or Criminal Protection Order? Do you have copies of the CPO?

Type to enter text

Does your child attend any pre-school or baby sitters?

If yes, what are you thinking about for your child now that you are staying here about the safety of your children at these places?

Type to enter text

Does your child have any visitation in place?

Type to enter text

Tell me about your kids. How do you believe they are doing?

How has their sleeping been?

How about his/her eating?

Have you seen a change in either?

How about how they are growing up?

Type to enter text

How about when they feel upset or worried? Are they comforted easily or not so much? What works for your child?

Type to enter text

What would you describe that you love about your child?

Type to enter text

What is it they like to do?

Type to enter text

What do you like most to do with your kids?

Type to enter text

Other parents have discussed their worry about their children and how they are getting along with the fear and hurting that was happening? What' the relationship like with their other parent/partner?

Type to enter text

Has your partner ever threatened to take your children away? To call child protection? Has your partner ever put the kids in the middle of the assaults or kept them from you?

Type to enter text

What is your worry for your child?

Type to enter text

We have youth advocates here. How can we help support your child and you?

Type to enter text

What is your child's favorite song or book that you sign or read to them?

Type to enter text

Can you help me understand if there is anything else you might want to talk about that we haven't?

Type to enter text

I authorize that my child can participate in youth programming services while residing here. I understand that I may withdrawal my child from youth programming services at any time in writing.

Parents/Guardian's Signature

Date

Witness's Signature

Date